DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 29, 32 and 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Beekman.

Beekman discloses an applicator comprising a tube 14 with a passage 36 formed of material constructed and arranged to be attracted to an outside surface 10, which can be releasably affixed to the outside surface. The container is not being positively recited since claim 29 is a subcombination claim, therefore, the tube of Beekman is capable of being attracted to a container having an outside surface.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 30-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Beekman.

Beekman discloses all the featured elements of the instant invention except for the tube being constructed of plastic ferrite material or flexible magnetic material. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the tube of Beekman constructed of plastic ferrite material or flexible magnetic material, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416. Also, a plastic ferrite material would be lighter in weight and the flexible magnetic material would facilitate maneuverability.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-28 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments, see pages 4-9, filed June 27, 2006, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 29-33 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kalisz and over Kalisz in view of Goodman have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Beekman.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Galloway discloses a holder for a tube magnetically attached to a container and Hau discloses a tube that is magnetically attached to a container.
